CCFS (The Center for Campus Fire Safety, Inc.) has advocated for fire safety at the nations institutions of higher education for over 20 years. CCFS is a non-profit, membership based, organization devoted to reducing the loss of life from fire at our nation’s educational campuses. Our members are the decision makers on their campus and are the experts regarding fire and life safety, building construction, rapid response, in-building emergency communications, emergency management, and so much more.

CCFS works with sponsors and non-profit partners all over the U.S. These partnerships are vital to our ability to thrive and achieve bigger and better things than the year before.

Our vision is the elimination of the loss of life and property by fire in the campus community through systems comprised of education, engineering, and enforcement and our mission is to be the national leader for improved fire and life safety at all colleges and universities by providing resources and educational programs to the greater campus community.

The success of our vision and mission is without question dependent on our partnerships with so many individuals and organizations.
